

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF MATRIMONIAL LAWYERS FOUNDATION

INTRODUCTION

The American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation was chartered in 1990 for charitable and educational purposes by the now 1600 members of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. The Foundation's purpose is to advance one of the AAML's most important goals – the protection of children and families. The Foundation solicits proposals for programs or activities which promote these goals and awards grants to those organizations which the Foundation deems most meritorious.

GRANT POLICY STATEMENT

The Board of Directors of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation considers grant applications for proposals designed to:

1. Provide financial assistance to organizations by way of grants in order to help protect families, parents and children adversely affected by the breakup of the family unit;
2. Support projects pertaining to children in custody disputes, dependency cases and similar situations;
3. Support programs in schools, courts and organizations to help children cope with the breakup of families;
4. Teach mothers, fathers and parental caregivers how to co-parent effectively;
5. Provide counseling to children of families experiencing domestic violence, drug and alcohol abuse and mental illness;
6. Promote relationship enrichment programs to help prevent the breakup of families;
7. Promote pro bono and low-cost family law legal representation and ancillary mental health services for both indigent clients and their children, who are adversely affected by the breakup of the family unit; and
8. Promote innovation, research and education in support of the mission of the Foundation.

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

To be eligible to apply for funds from the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation, an applicant must:

1. Be a U.S.-based organization that has received a determination letter (which is in effect during the application process) from the Internal Revenue Service that it qualifies as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or

2. Be able to demonstrate that the proposed project for which the funds will be used qualifies as an activity in which a Section 501 (c)(3) organization is permitted to engage; or
3. Be an individual or Individuals who provide research and/or education involving issues pertinent to family law.

AAML FOUNDATION FUNDING POLICIES / GUIDELINES

Grant awards will not be made to:

1. Organizations designed primarily for lobbying or dissemination of religious or political views;
2. Political organizations or campaigns;
3. Endowment funds or campaigns;
4. Scholarship funds or campaigns;
5. Lawyers or law firms in private practice; or
6. Organizations substantially funded by the Legal Services Corporation or its equivalent.

As a general rule, the Foundation will give priority to projects which are either initiated and completed within the grant year or receive funding from other sources after the Foundation provides the initial start-up funds. Also, a grant awarded to an approved applicant will ordinarily not exceed $5,000 and not exceed a 12-month budget period.

The grant award monies ordinarily will be disbursed to an approved applicant in November of each year.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

An original application signed by the properly authorized officials of the grant applicant must be received by the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation no later than May 15th of the year in which the application is submitted. An electronic copy, formatted as a PDF file, may be emailed to the Foundation at kim@aamlfoundation.org.

The applicant's proposal MUST: (1) respond to all questions set forth in the "Project Narrative"; and (2) contain all data required by the application, or it may be deemed incomplete and ineligible for consideration. The applicant is encouraged to provide as much detail as appropriate to assist the Board of Directors of the Foundation in making its grant award decisions.

Documents which must be included in the application are:

1. Signed grant application facesheet;
2. Completed project narrative sheets;
3. Proposed project budget sheet;
4. Copies of the applicant's operating budget (or year-end financial statements) for the previous two years;
