

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF MATRIMONIAL LAWYERS FOUNDATION

INTRODUCTION

The American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation was chartered in 1990 for charitable and educational purposes, including presentation of programs to educate the public, Judges and attorneys about various aspects of family law. Additionally, the Foundation aspires to elevate the standards of practice of family law, including educating the members of the bar about appropriate standards of professional responsibility for the practice of family laws. The Foundation solicits proposals for programs or activities which promote these goals and awards funds to those organizations which the Foundation deems most meritorious.

FUNDING POLICY STATEMENT

The Board of Directors of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation considers grant applications for proposal designed to:

1. Educate Judges and attorneys, allied professions and the public about the protection of children in the legal process.
2. Promote research and education involving issues pertinent to family law.
3. Educate Judges and attorneys about appropriate standards of professional responsibility for the practice of family law.
4. Promote pro bono and low cost family law legal representation and ancillary mental health services of and for indigent clients, with a special emphasis on abused spouses and children.

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

To be eligible to make application for funds from the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation, an applicant must:

1. Be an organization that has received a determination letter (which is then currently in effect) from the Internal Revenue Service that it qualifies as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or
2. Be able to demonstrate that the proposed project for which the funds will be used qualifies as an activity in which a Section 501 (c)(3) organization is permitted to engage; or
3. Individuals who provide research and/or education involving issues pertinent to family law.

AAML FOUNDATION FUNDING POLICIES / GUIDELINES

Grant awards will not be made to:

1. Organizations designed primarily for lobbying or dissemination of religious or political views;
2. Organizations which maintain a State sales/use tax exemption on any of its activities on the basis of being a religious organization or which maintains a State property tax exemption on the basis that said property is used for religious worship;
3. Political organizations or campaigns;
4. Endowment funds or campaigns;
5. Scholarship funds or campaigns;
6. Lawyers or law firms in private practice;
7. Organizations substantially funded by Legal Services Corporation.

As a general rule, the Foundation will give priority to projects which are either initiated and completed within the grant year or receive funding from other sources after the Foundation provides the initial start-up funds. Also, a grant awarded to an approved applicant will ordinarily not exceed $5,000 and not exceed a 12-month budget period.

The grant award monies will ordinarily be disbursed to an approved applicant in October of each year.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

An original application signed by the properly authorized officials, must be received by the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation, no later than July 15th of the year in which the application is submitted. An electronic copy, formatted as a PDF file, may be emailed to the Foundation at foundation@aaml.org.

The applicant's proposal MUST: (1) respond to all questions set forth in the "Project Narrative" and (2) contain all data required by the application or it may be deemed incomplete and ineligible for consideration. The applicant is encouraged to provide as much detail as appropriate to assist the Board of Directors of the Foundation in making its grant award decisions.

Documents which require return are:
