Haven Hills

Haven Hills, located in Canoga Park, California has provided safety and support to survivors of domestic violence. Since 1977, Haven Hills has offered shelter, crisis intervention, counseling, advocacy and activities supporting increased economic opportunity helping over 2500 women and men each year find strength within to break the cycle of abuse and build and maintain a new life for themselves and their children. Haven Hills provides safety, shelter and support to all survivors of domestic violence.

Court 'n' Disaster is a Rocky Tonk band composed of legal professionals and friends from Sonoma County, California who bill themselves as "Just your Standard Courthouse Band" playing a blend of classic and traditional country music along with some original compositions. The members include:

- Jim Bertoli - Lead singer/acoustic guitar. Jim's day job is serving as a Judge with the Sonoma County Superior Court.
- Kevin Borges - Drummer with an alternate identity as a recovering banker who owns the Tiny Town Coffee shop in Forestville, California.
- Jim DeMartini - Bass/back-up vocals. Jim practices law in Cloverdale, California but would much rather be chasing waterfowl, turkey or deer.
- Larry Moskowitz - Keyboard. When not hitting the ivories Larry serves as the Foundation's fearless leader.
- Danielle Noble - Solo singer/back-up vocals/tambourine: Danielle works as a substitute teacher in her alternate life.
- Joseph Pachorek - Lead Acoustic guitar/electric guitar: Joseph also works as senior legal processor at the Sonoma County Superior Court.
- Mark Peters - Lead electric guitar/steel guitar. Mark is an attorney in Santa Rosa, California.

Elizabeth M. Fraley is an Associate Professor at Baylor Law School, where she teaches Practice Court and serves as co-director of the Executive LL.M. in Litigation Management. She serves as faculty at the Academy of the Advocate in St. Andrews, Scotland. Liz is an actively practicing attorney with 30 years of trial and mediation experience. She is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), is past president of the Waco Chapter and a national board member. She has served as faculty in the ABOTA Masters in Trial series and serves as faculty for the Judicial Education Conference, teaching evidence to sitting judges. She is a co-author of Texas Commercial Causes of Action, Fundamentals of Lawyer Leadership and is author of the updated Powell and Kinkeade's Practical Guide to Texas Evidence. Liz is a frequent author and speaker on trial skills, procedure and evidence. An avid runner and traveler, she is the mother of three children.

Lee's Place - Home for the Heart, located in Tallahassee, Florida, was founded in 2000 to provide quality therapy to adults children and families who are coping with loss, trauma or life changing experiences such as divorce and separation while offering specialized training and education to the community. Lee's Place serves everyone starting at 4 years of age regardless of their financial circumstances.

Avery Tucker Fontaine is Head of Strategic Philanthropy for BNY Mellon Wealth Management, supporting U.S. Markets, Family Office, Endowment & Foundation and Planned Giving Groups. Focused on developing a holistic platform for philanthropic and nonprofit guidance, Avery is the lead subject matter expert in the review and analysis of client philanthropic interests and national association relationships.

Avery has over 20 years of experience in the investment and financial services industry. Previously, she was Senior Vice President, Philanthropic Consultant with Wachovia, then with Wells Fargo. Avery focuses on families and successful nonprofit institutions to improve grantmaking efficacy, new funding model awareness, foundation & endowment management, use of planned giving, and long-term strategic planning.
