Authorization and Certification

I hereby authorize the Forensic & Business Valuation Division of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Foundation ("AAML") to make such inquiries of those persons identified in this, my application for membership in the Forensic & Business Valuation Division of the AAML and waive any and all rights to confidentiality with regard to the information supplied by any third party. I acknowledge that, by making this application, I am requesting my references and other peers to whom inquiry is made for a frank and candid opinion regarding my knowledge, skills, ethics and professionalism. I agree that it would damage the integrity of the AAML Forensic & Business Valuation Division application and review were I to seek access to or information regarding the application and admission process of the AAML. I expressly and voluntarily waive any rights to challenge, through litigation or otherwise the review and membership process of the AAML regarding my application.

I hereby affirm that: a.) 50% or greater of my practice is in the field of matrimonial law including business valuation, forensics, tax and/or litigation support; b.) I am a member in good standing of the licensing organization(s) in the states in which I practice my profession and that I have not been disciplined, suspended, reprimanded, censored or had any other formal disciplinary action taken against me for any breach of ethics or unprofessional conduct by any professional organization, association or other professional group or court, and c.) I am in compliance in all respects with the professional and ethical obligations and continuing education requirements imposed by any licensing board(s), professional organizations or other associations from which I have obtained any professional license, certification, designation or accreditation.

I recognize that membership in the F&BV Division is not a certification, endorsement or accreditation by the AAML or the AAML, but is a professional civic affiliation to support the AAML in its philanthropic mission. I agree to follow all policies of the AAML.
